Resolved, That the delegates chosen from this county to the State Convention be instructed to use their best endeavors to promote the nomination of James W. Wadsworth for Governor.

Senator Humphrey reported for the County Com-State delegation:

Senator Humphrey reported for the County Committee that the preliminary canvass had been begun and that special Wyoming County McKinley Club buttons were difficult to get manufactured, but they would be secured, as by them they hoped to place every man who was doubtful either among the Republicans or from the Democratic forces.

ALLISON TO TAKE THE STUMP. THE SENATOR CONFIDENT THAT IOWA WILL RE-MAIN LOYAL TO REPUBLICANISM.

Chicago, Aug. 17 .- Senator Allison came to National Republican headquarters to-day from the seashere, prepared to take an active part in the campaign in his home State and elsewhere. He his party affiliations were, who was a patriot and said he would not do much campaign work outside

I shall be very much surprised if we fail to carry Icwa. The general situation is favorable, but there is hard work ahead to make sure of victery. I don't anticipate much difficulty on account of fusion in lows. Fusion between Democrats and Populists is no novelty with us, but their united strength has not been enough to wrest the State strength has not been enough to wrest the State from the Republicans. There have been some Republicans led astray by the free-sliver false prophets, but there are also many lows Democrats who will vote for McKinley against the fusion tieket. Hard work will convert these Republican backet lers, and I am going to help to do it.

The National Committee has established a bureau of information and education for the colored race at headquarters, with F. L. Bornett, a Chicago attorner in charge. Special literature and speakers of the race will form part of the campaign work.

B. F. Havens, ex-Mayor of Terre Haute, Ind., a Mfelong Democrat, will take the stump in Indiana for McKinley. He was a visitor at headquarters to-day, and said the tariff issue had made him a Republican.

LEAGUERS TO HAVE A BIG BANQUET. SENATOR SHERMAN TO BE THE CHIEF SPEAKER eyebrows in surprise, and said: -THE COMING CONVENTION.

Chicago, Aug. 17.-An elaborate political banquet to to be one of the features of the Convention of National Republican League Clubs at Milwaukee next week. It will be held at the Hotel Pfister, the second day. Wednesday, and seats will be arranged for 400 persons. The chief speaker will be Senator and others will be ex-Senator John J. galls, of Kansas; Senator Cushman K. Davis, of Minnesota; Congressman Smith, of Michigan; D. D. Woodmansee, of Cincinnati; National Committeeman Woodmansee, of Christian A. B. Commins, of Iowa, and Executive Committee-man Charles G. Dawes, of Illinois. Mr. Hanna will also speak if he arrives in time from the East. A new candidate for president of the League has come to the from, "Father" Gleason, of New-York, called so because he was one of the founders of the organization. He is popular and widely known.

GOOD FIGHTING GROUND. AN ENCOURAGING REPORT OF THE SITUATION IN THE FAR WEST.

Washington, Aug. 17 (Special) .- A correspondent for an Eastern paper just returned from the Pacific Slope, where he has passed the time since the Chicago Convention, thus states the situation there:

"A great deal of effective, quiet work has been done to countervail the silver craze. Of course, at first the Western farmers, under the full force of the delusion, refused to read the tracts and documents sent. In fact, more can be accomplished and has been accomplished in different ways. Some acceptable speakers would be more useful printed documents here. In Utah it is believed that a private business enterprise in which the father of Senator Cannon is interested will have an important effect on the fortunes of parties. The older Cannon has a long head on his shoulders. He is a McKinley man, thus differing from his son, who has come out for Bryan. He gets from Connecticut a million and a half dollars and invests it n a grand irrigation project. What more natural than that this enterprise will countervail all that the young Senator has accomplished by his support

"A strong fight is being made in Idaho by Senator Shoup, whose colleague, Senator Dubols, is on the other side, with not half the enthusiasm he uld have displayed for Teller as nomince of the silver people. Washington and Oregon may be touch and go, but California can be held without great difficulty by the sound-money party. Protection sentiment is strong in that State. It has not weakened at all. Good campaigning, in may judg-ment, will surely retain California's vote. On a full review of the situation, I am impressed with the belief that the Pacific States are good fighting ground, and that in several of them Republican chances are the best."

This correspondent is the representative of a sound-money Democratic paper. He is disposed to regard the outlook as much better for McKinley and Hobart than it was a few weeks ago, and steadily improving all the while.

MR. FORAKER IN TOWN.

THE ENTHUSIASTIC OPENING OF THE OHIO CANVASS.

THE SENATOR-ELECT GOING ABROAD FOR MONTH - PROGRESS OF SOUND-MONEY

SENTIMENT IN SEVERAL STATES. Senator-elect Joseph B. Foraker, who make the speech nominating Major McKinley at the St. Louis Convention, arrived at the Fifth Avenue Louis Convention, arrived at the Fifth Avenue Hotel yesterday. Mr. Foraker, strangely enough, was assigned to the room which Senator Jones had on his recent visit to the city. Mr. Foraker will sail for Europe on the American Line steamship St. Paul to-morrow, to be gone for a month. His vacation will be short, as he wishes to return time to take a further hand in the campaign Mr. Foraker said yesterday that he hoped he would not see any one he knew while abroad, as he wants to have a month of absolute rest. Mr. addressed the mass-meeting held in Columbus on Saturday, at which Senator Sherman also spoke, and he says that it was one of the most enthusiastic ga herings he ever attended.

While in Europe Mr. Foraker will meet his daughters, who are now abroad, and accompany them on the return trip. He said that he wanted to be back in time to look after the campaign in his State. Referring to the Columbus mass-meeting, he remarked: "Judging from the enthusiasm manifested and the numbers that attended, one would not believe that it was one of the hottest days of the year. Senator Sherman's speech was a particularly able one, and he made many telling points. Every sentence he uttered was a shot that riddled some sham of the free-coinage men. The arguments of the Senator and General Woodford were received with great applause, and it was ment in the gathering. We are now in the saddle, and will win this fight by a great majority.

"The constant talk and grandiloquent claims of the free-coinage men lead some people to believe that the State of Ohio, and the West generally, are likely to go against the Republicans. I can speak for Ohio, and say that the sentiment for free coinage has little or no root there. The Republicans are united and aggressive. There is no silver defection in the Republican ranks, and the number of gold-standard men who are leaving the Democratic party is constantly adding strength to the will vote for McKinley, there are many other gold standard Democrats who will vote for the third ticket. From all I can learn from those who are qualified to speak, not only Ohio, but also Indiana lilinois and lows, which States are claimed by the free-coinage men, are safely Republican, and the campaign is in excellent shape in the Northwest, and we are going to make inroads upon the

Mr. Foraker said that if possible he would at his party affiliations were, who was a patriot and a lover of his country should attend the meeting.

Mr. Foraker is accompanied by his son, Benson who will sail with him on Wednesday. Benson Foraker had a peculiar experience with one of the Popocratic crusaders who came here with Bryan aker was eating his breakfast yesterday morning tall, heavily built, heavily bearded man entered the dining-room and got a seat at his table. As

"G' mornin' "Good morning," replied Mr. Foraker, as he glanced up; and, as he did not know the man, he looked down again.

'Pears like you don't want speech with me." "Oh, not at all," said Mr. Forsker, hastily; "I was busy reading and I didn't notice you."

"I don't like your New-York ways," added the stranger gruffly. "Out 'n my country we're always willing to say 'mornin' to a friend." Then he lapsed into silence and began to eat heartily. As Benson Foraker passed out of the door, he looked back curiously at his table companion and asked the head waiter who he was. The waiter raised his "Don't you know who that is? That is Governor Hogg of Texas." "WAIT AWHILE." SAYS MR. HOGG.

It was the redoubtable ex-Governor from the Lone Star State. He has remained behind to look after some business, and yesterday when asked about Mr. Bryan and the plans of the candidate for President on the Democratic ticket, he said, cautiously:

"He isn't through yet. Wait awhile. Give him time. He is coming back here. I don't know when, but soon. He is going to come back and make som but soon. He is going to come back and make some more speeches. He will probably make several in the State, and you will be surprised. He has been underestimated, and a mistaken notion of him is prevalent. I don't think that he will go on West now, but will come back East for a few more speeches before he goes to Nebraska."

Robert McKell, of Ohio, one of the largest coal and lumber men in the Valley of the Ohio, called upon Mr. Foraker yesterday. Mr. McKell has acres of timber land in Ohio and West Virginia and his mines are working night and day in turning out coal in West Virginia. He says that never in his life has be seen party lines go tumbling, so far as the Democracy is concerned, as they have this year. ALL OF THEM FOR M'KINLEY.

"In one block in Charleston," said Mr. McKell, "I know of eight lawyers, all men of influence. Every one was a Democrat previous to the Chicago Con vention. Now they have bolted the Democratic platform and the nominees and have declared that they will vote for McKinley. They have started a

A BIG REPUBLICAN MAJORITY.

R. W. Taylor, who represents part of Mr. McKinicy's old Congress district, which was badly gerry-mandered to defeat the Major, was in the city yes-He said that local pride and intense Re publicanism would roll up a Republican majority in his district this fall that would be unprecedented. "I think that there is little free-colnage senti-ment in the State," he said. "A lot of talkers have been trying to stir up that sentiment, but I do not think there is much of it. The beauty of the situation is that, while there is an occasional defection from the Republican party on account of the free-silver sentiment, the gain from the Demo defection from the Republican party on account of the free-silver scattiment, the gain from the Democratic column gives us an overwhelming majority. All the Republicans are aggressive and ready to debate with all comers, and the men who have left the Democracy on account of its financial oscilarations are equally purnacious, and so a strong campaign is under way."

The report that a large number of Union veterans are in favor of free columns, which has been industriously circulated by a large number of free-silver advocates, was vehemently dented by General Cyrus Bussey, of Washington, yesterday, General Bussey, who was Assistant Secretary of the Interior under General Harrison, came to the city yesterday to attend to some personal business, and in the course of a conversation said that the report about the ex-Union soldiers was unfounded. He said that some, from personal motives, might vote for Bryan and Sewall, but he believed that only a few would do so. "The question of sound money," he said, "appeais to the patriotism of the veteran of the war of 61 as much as the question of the secession of States did then. Free sliver would reduce by almost one-half the pensions which are now paid them in money as good as gold, and they know it. Many of them are men of thirtift, and have money put away in savings barks and building and loan associations. They are not coing to see this returned to them in Socient dollars and they do not wish their heirs to have the life insurance they have been carrying for years paid to them fin a depreciated currency. McKinley was a soldler, and he stands as much for partiotism to-day as he did thirty years ago. He stands for every principle that made the country great for thirty years, and I think that his com-rades of '61 will not desert him now. I believe that I know the sentiment of the old solders, and it is for an untarnished National honor and a cur-rency that is equal to the best in the world."

REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES TO-NIGHT. FOUR SETS OF DELEGATES TO BE ELECTED-LITTLE OPPOSITION TO THE MA-CHINE EXPECTED.

Four sets of delegates are to be elected at the Republican primaries, which are to be held in all the election districts of the city this evening between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock.

One set of delegates will attend Assembly dis-trict conventions, to be held on August 21, at 5 p. m., for electing delegates and alternates to the Republican State Convention, which is to be held at Saratoga on August 25. attend Assembly district conventions on the evening of September $ to elect delegates to the Republican county convention, which is to be at Lyric Hall on the evening of September 10 to nominate candidates for county offices.

The third set of election district delegates will attend Congress district conventions on the evening of September 3 to nominate Republican candidates for Congress.

The fourth set of election district delegates will attend Assembly district conventions on the evening of September 3 to nominate Republican candidates for Assembly Republican inspectors of election in all the election districts have received instructions to make their returns to the headquarters of the Republican County Committee, in West Thirty-eighth-st., this evening immediately after the close of the primaries, and Edward Lauterbach, chairman of the Republican County Committee, has given personal orders in many cases. Mr. Lauterbach and his followers in the regular machine organization expect to carry nearly all of the primaries in the city, and from the telk among the Anti-Machine Republicans yesterday it might be inferred that no efforts will be made in most of the districts to prevent the machine men from having their own way.

Many of the Anti-Machine Republicans are out of the city, and some of those who are in town have said that they are tired of carrying primaries only to have the legally elected delegates set aside by manipulations. They have said, also, that until after the election they want to bend all their energies in the direction of securing the largest possible majority for McKinley and Hobart, and that factional differences may be well deferred until later. their returns to the headquarters of the Republi-

ACTIVITY AT HEADQUARTERS.

FAVORABLE REPORTS BEING RECEIVED FROM STATES HITHERTO SOLID FOR DEMOCRACY.

The same activity which has characterized the Republican National Headquarters from the first day of the campaign was seen yesterday in the operations of the various departments. General Powell Clayton was engaged from morning until throughout the States east of the Ohio River. The same work is being done by William J. Hahn in the Chicago headquarters for the country west of the Chio.

reception of visitors occupied the attention of the whole corps of assistants. Favorable reports from the West and South continued to arrive, predicting a victory for Major McKinley, and the routing of the free-silver ticket in many States that have hitherto been solid for Democracy.

Congressman George E. Bowden, of Norfolk, Va., a member of the National Committee, called yesterday. He said that active work has begun for the Republican ticket in the Richmond headquarters.

"The Republicans feel much encouraged over the outlook, especially because of the action of the sound-money Democrats. Last week 700 of the prominent business men of the city came out in the public press announcing themselves for sound money and against the Chicago platform. With the earnest support of such men and with a reasonably fair election, such as under the circumstances we may anticipate, we feel confident that the electoral vote of Virginia will be cust for McKinley

Among the visitors to headquarters was John M. Birch, formerly Consul at Nagasaki, Japan, in President Cleveland's first term, and now president of the Lindsley Institute at Wheeling, W. Va. Dr. Birch saw N. B. Scott, of the Executive Committee, and his townsman. Regarding the sound-money movement in West Virginia Dr. Birch said.

The movement is strong in West.

sound-money movement in West Virginia Dr.
Birch said.

"The movement is strong in West Virginia, and is daily growing stronger. As a result of a conference held on August 12, a call for a sound-money convention has just been issued to choose delegates to the National Convention at Indianapolis and to select an electoral ticket. The call is signed by three representatives from each district. Many of our best clitzens and foremost Democrats are taking an active part in this movement. Among them I may imme General Alfred Caldwell, ex-Attorney-General; Coloned Randolph Stalnacker, expresident of the State University; J. B. Somerville, ex-State Senator, and there are scores of others, all prominent in educational, political and business circles. The third ticket will be suported vigorously.

A NEW BANNER SWUNG TO THE BICECE. ROUSING RATIFICATION MEETING OF THE MAN-

HATTAN REPUBLICAN CLUB OF THE XXIIID. The Manhattan Republican Club of the XXIIId Assembly District held a mass-meeting last night in the history of the district. The members of the Campaign Committee probably knew the sentiment of the people and in what numbers they would turn out to show their fealty to McKinley and Hobart, and for that reason had a speakers' platform erected at Seventh-ave. and One-hundred-andthirty-fourth-st. It was a wise step on their part, because there is no hall in Harlem which could have accommodated the crowd. The throng was so large that the men and women who were on the outer edges could not hear the speakers, but few went away before the last speaker had finished, and the cheers that went up from the multitude whenever a speaker scored a point could be heard blocks away.

Civil Justice James P. Davenport, chairman of the Campaign Committee, called the meeting to order, and in a short address outlined the positions of the contesting parties and showed the fallacious position of the Popocrats. Mr. Davenport's remarks were loudly applauded, and when at the close of his speech "Three cheers for Judge Davenport"

THE SITUATION IN SOUTH DAKOTA.

James A. Blanchard, the well-known Republican of this city, has received a letter from his brother. County, S. D., giving an account of the political situation in that State. Following are extracts from the letter:

"You wish to know what is the political situation here. I am bound to say that at present it looks dark for the Republicans. The low price of farm produce has had a good deal to do with it. and now the people think, if free silver will do all and now the people think, if free silver will do all its advocates say it will be a godsend to them. There have been silver speeches here every month for the last year, and others are billed until No-vember. The Populists are working hard, but I will not concede this State to them. I believe the Republicans will carry it, but work must be done, and I think it will be, and that the result will be all right."

MAYOR PINGREE'S CONFIDENCE

One of the first persons to register at the Murray Hill Hotel yesterday morning was Mayor Hazen S. Pingree of Detroit, the Republican candidate for Governor of Michigan. Mayor Pingree is a gental man, and always approachable, and yesterday said man, and always approachable, and yesterday said that the Republicans would win in both the National and local elections in his State this fall, "I feel sure," he said, "of being the next Governor of Michigan.
"Is there any danger of the Democrats carrying the State for the National electoral ticket?"
"Not the slightest," was the screne reply, "I think that Major McKinley will certainly carry the State."

POLITICAL NOTES.

No less than 3.452 Republican voters in Allegany County have signed a protest against the way in which Assemblyman Robbins was defeated by the Platt men in the nominating convention. It is now certain that he will run on an in-The reputable newspapers throughout the entire State are becoming more and more indignant over the affair. "It is a saddening ientary on the condition to which public men are reduced under the blighting effects of Platt machine domination," says "The Dunkirk Union," "that such a career as Frederick Robbins's should be cut short by the dictum of the Party Boss, as a punishment for being clean, independent and upright." "The Olean Times" denounces in the most emphatic way the manner in which the convention was manipulated. "Robbins was robbed of the nomination," it declares, "by treachery and trickery. was political larceny. He was defeated because he is an honest and independent man. The corpora tions, through the Platt machine, the custodian of corporate interests, are responsible for it. He was turned down simply because he is the enemy of estionable legislation; because he could not be listed among the pawns which Platt delivers to the corporations seeking favors at Albany; because, again, he is not a negative quantity, not passive in his honesty, but the aggressive, fearless defender of the people's interests against corporate encroachment upon their rights. If the Republicans of Allement upon their rights. If the Republicans of Allegany submit to this outrage they deserve continued treatment on the same lines." "It is not at all surprising," says "The Buffalo Enquirer," "that a fight was made against him by the Platt men after his record in the Assembly last winter. In the anti-trust legislation Mr. Robbins's course particularly offended those in power in the party. He had the nerve to hold to the position he took in respect to this legislation, in spite of all the pressure that lobbyists, party leaders, and even the Governor himself, could bring to hear upon him." To "The Utlea Observer," Mr. Robbins's defeat indicates a general plan on Flatt's part to weed out every independent member, and, it adds, "if Platt succeeds in securing a majority of the Assembly this year with such men as Robbins weeded out, the people of the State cannot contemplate the session at Albany next winter without horror and disgust."

There are precedents enough, however, to discourage a timid man. Every one remembers how, two years ago, when General Collis carried thirty-nine of the forty-five election districts that constitute his Assembly district, he was thrown out and his place in the State The preparations in the Garden for the meeting were competed yesterday by the decoration of the building to the other. The attention of the Republican National Committee is respectfully called to Oswego Crunty, which furnishes another illustration of the way in which the friends of William McKinley are being put to the sword by the machine. Prior to the Republican National Convention a strong McKinley club was organized at Fulton. It incurred the in trying to force the Republican party to nominate Levi P. Morton for President. tion of the club seemed to exasperate the anti-McKinley people, who openly declared that not one n who were instrumental in the organiventions or have any say in the conduct of the the nominations were made at St. Louis, however, they came around and begged for peace, pretendthat they wanted to recognize the leaders of the McKinley club. They succeeded in deceiving some and others they led away with patronage and promises. When the caucuses were held last week the mask was thrown off and the Platt men week the mask was thrown off and the Platt men stood forth revealed as the bitterest of factionists. Every original supporter of McKinley was turned down relentlessly. State Senator Stranahan being foremest in this work. Among others on whom revenge was meted out was Mr. Cornell, the Editor of "The Fulton Patriot." He returns thanks to the Platt people for what they have done in his case, declaring that he prefers by far to be able to express himself freely on all subjects that concern the people than to accept any plums that fall from the dining-table of such politicians as now dominate Oswego County. The meaning of the proceeding he points out in his paper as being perfectly clear. "The Platities," he declares, "propose to crush out of the party all the honest supporters of McKinley from any part of the management of the campaign, and then to betray the party into the hands of the opposition, if it can be done to secure the future control of the party lines to their reprehensible commune."

Although unsuccessful in Utlea, it is conceded on all sides that William E. Lewis's fight against Hackett was most courageous. The odds were all against him, but he conducted such an effective campaign that Republicans generally, as "The Utica Press' remarks. 'If they have a grain of gratitude,' should make suitable acknowledgment of their obligation for what he has done in behalf of the cause of political independence, Judge Evans's fight in Rome was successful. He beat the

Referring to the fight against Miller in his own county, "The Utica Press," speaking from its specific information on the subject, remarks that while "there were some pretty tough things done In Oneida County at the Republican primaries, there was much worse use of money in Herkimer County. It is currently reported that five figures will be necessary to express the number of dollars used there Thursday. The machine must have used the patronage most shamefully. Herkimer County never before saw such an outpouring of public work. It was all wrong and an unwarrantable use of the taxpayers' money. That and the use of money at the caucuses will bring the good county into disrepute all over the State. The extent of the corruption, according to all accounts, is nothing short of shameful." in Onelda County at the Republican primaries,

So strong is the sentiment in favor of Robbins's independent candidacy that "The Cattaraugus Republican" thinks that "it is not altogether im-probable that the machine may find itself hoist with its own petard."

Although Platt will control the State Conven-"The Buffalo Times" declares that the Republican party is three to one against him. "His opponents waste their energies." It declares, "through failure to concentrate them."

Mr. Wadsworth will at least have the news papers of his own district with him in his fight papers of his own district with him in his fight for Goversor. "The Livingston Republican" comes out strongly for him this week. "He has served his county in the Assembly," it declares, "the State as Controller, and represented one of the most important districts in Western New-York for several terms in Congress, in all of which positions he has evidenced that he possesses the sterling qualities which make the capable and honorable public official."

MURRAY HILL CLUB TO HAVE A RECEPTION. A special meeting of the Murray Hill Republican Club was held last night at their quarters at Seventh-ave, and Forty-second-st. The uniforms recently ordered for the uniformed corps were distributed and several new members were enrolled. The parade that is being planned will take place soon after the Republican State Convention. On Thursday evening of this week at the Grand Central Palace Roof Garden a reception and complimentary performance will be given for the members of the club.

SELECTIONS FROM THE MAIL

Schurz, Isidor Straus, John A. Taylor, General Lloyd Bryce, General F. T. Ferguson, of Birming-THE WEST AND "BRITISH INFLUENCE." VIEWS THAT ARE HELD TOWARD THE ALLEGED ATTITUDE OF THE EAST.

> To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: Those people in the West who depend upon silver mining for life can hardly be termed hayseds or Anarchists because they exhibit a strong desire to preserve themselves. It is the common pinion in the West that the demonstization of silver was not demanded by the world at all, but was a plot of bankers ruled by Europe to corner our gold and commerce and Government. And it is the prevailing opinion that our Eastern bankers are too closely ailled to London and British free

United States, especially the Western part. A great deal of gold has been dug out of the Western mines and quickly found its way to Europe. Millions and millions have been skinned from our industries and pushed into the regal lap of smiling Europe by free trade processes, by Angle-Saxonism and by Toryism-millions which ought to have been used for irrigating canals to trade to be strictly loyal to any portion of the Anglo-Saxonism and by Toryism—millions which ought to have been used for irrigating canals to bring the West up to an inhabitable condition when mining should give out.

We can hardly blame men for throwing Bryanic silver bricks at those who have misused the gold ones. But, of course, Bryanism is but an incident of the general melec. Chaos is not wanted by the West. Westerners are McKinleyites. They know that protection is anti-Tory, and that it will regulate finance and cut off many undemocratic induences and practices. They know that a McKinley tariff will leave some of our earnings here for the development of our country. They know that even if protection cuts us entirely away from Europe and leaves us only our own American markets, we shall be immeasurably better situated than we are now.

You can hardly blame Westerners for being disgusted with Eastern toadyism to European artistoracy, while believing their poverty to be due to it. You cannot but expect that disgust will prevail here at the public exhibitions of British preference in pulpit, press and society. You must acknowledge that while men feel that they are being betrayed to foreigners they cannot patiently read the sentimental slush which alms to convince the American people that the British have lately ceased to regard us as brakgarts and are getting really to love us as brothers.

Westerners are intelligent men generally, the best American stock. They feel as if they were entitled to as much representation in American affairs as London. And I think they will get the fore the battle is done with I think protection, the roal issue of the present campaign, will give Me-Kinley every Northern State and most of the Southern.

On H. KIMBALL.

The meeting will be opened by Major Byrne, and Perry Belmont will be the presiding officer. Mr. Belmont will deliver an address, introducing the speaker of the evening. Mr. Cockran will have no laborious address prepared to read in manuscript, so that the crowd which is expected to go to hear him will not be disappointed, as were those who assembled to hear Bryan. On the advice of the police and Garden authorities, the following order and rules will be enforced: All doors are to be opened at 6 o'clock to prevent a DEDUCTIONS FROM BRYAN'S LOGIC. To the Editor of The Tribune.

The League beg leave to hope that their friends who applied for tickets and who have not received them will appreciate the fact that the demand for reserved seats has been many time more than the capacity of It is not surprising that Bryan's speech moved his audience—out of doors! He talked over the heads of his hearers. "The people" in the East Midison-ave, entrance will be for the admission of persons holding tickets for boxes and reserved eats in the arean circle. Twenty-seventh-st, entrance, centre of block, will who are in sympathy with him care nothing about argument, even if it be as bad as Bryan's. They wish him to gesticulate and roar, and weep and tell them that they can walk on the grass and on the grain, and into bank vauits, and that they can have everything free-free trade, free rum, free silver and freedom from all wholesome restraint.

Twenty-sixth-st, entrance, centre of block, will be r the admission to main floor seats not reserved. Twenty-sixth-st, entrance will be for admission to Twenty-sixth-st, entrance, centre of block, will be for the admission to main floor seals not reserved. Twenty-sixth-st, entrance will be for admission to the gallery.

All doors will be open at 6 p. m. except the one in Twenty-seventh-st, reserved for the Brooklyn delegation, which will not be opened until they arrive. All of the seats on the main floor not reserved will be for the public, whether holding tickets or not, at 7-45 p. m.

All of the seats remaining unoccupied, whether reserved or not, at 8-15 p. m. will be open to the public, whether holding tickets or not.

Acting Chief Cortright, who is in command of the police force in the absence of Chief Conlin, said yesterday afternoon that he had made all the police arrangements which he considered necessary for the meeting to-night. Chief Cortright will be in personal command of the police at the Garden. There will be a force of 400 men. Acting inspectors Harley, Brooks, McChillagh, O'Koefe and Thompson will ald Chief Cortright. None of the streets leading to the Garden will have police lines blocking the people, as was the case at the Bryan affair, unless a crush occurs which will make it necessary to hold back the crowd. in a dime museum, where nonsense wins. Here is a little of it: If Europe demands the payment of our debt, he says, "No gold can leave this country until the owner of the gold receives something in return that he would rather have. Such logic would prove that the farmer who is forced to surrender his farm to satisfy a mortgage would "rather have" his mortgage than his farm. Regarding life insurance he says: Policy-holders know that a rising standard must be of more benefit to the companies than to policy-holders. Had he known much of what he was talking about he would have kn was that all the great companies are mutual, and that in each case the policy-holders are practically the company, and that they alone are benefited or injured by financial legislation. He says also that free colings at it to 1 will lift silver to $1.29 per ounce. If so, why does not he, and why do not his adherents, who tell us that "the people" are coming into power next March, purchase enough silver buillon to prevent its further decline? With 100 per cent profit in view they should not hesitate to go in strong. I shall not vote for Bryan, but I don't mind giving him the benefit of a suggestion. If he will borrow $10.000 now and invest it at once in silver buillon, he can have it coined into about $19.000 when it to I hecomes law, and then have about $2.000 left after paying off, with interest, the $10.000 horrowed. The scheme is not quite so good as that of a farmer near Lake George, who asked for gold in payment of $5 worth of produce which he sold to one of the summer hotels last week. When asked what he wished to do with the gold, he said: "I'm going to save up a hundred dollars in gold this year and use it next year, if Bryan is elected, to get sixteen hundred dollars in silver, and thea I'll pay off the mortgage on my farm."

It is probable that this frugal farmer intends to vote for Bryan, and the latter should not disappoint the dear old man. The Popocrats should be more helpful to farmers. Why not give them $1,600 for $1? Almost any farmer can save enough to pay off his mortgage if this be done. He will not be helped by 16 to I, as Bryan tells us that this will put silver up by the side of that dishonest gold dollar that return that he would rather have." Such logic would prove that the farmer who is forced to sur-HE RESIGNS FROM THE GENERAL COMMITTEE OF cause he cannot support the Chicago ticket and plat-

Sickness makes a man's hands use-less. General and nervous debility holds him down just as surely as a great weight. He feels that he is down, but he hasn't strength or en-ergy enough to get up again. His whole body seems tired out. His head is heavy. All effort is distasteful. Gentlemen: Your letters of the 15th and 19th were duly received, and we had considered almost favorably your proposition to send us samples and tired out. His head is heavy. All effort is distasteful. He is as tired in the morning as he was when he went to bed. The sleep he gets is heavy, dreamful, and unrefreshing. His body is full of turgid, healthless, impure blood. He is subject to headaches and dizziness and palpitation of the heart at the least exertion. He is on the direct road to serious sickness. Few men appreciate how serious is their case when they say: "Oh there is nothing the matter with me. Me blood is a little out of order: that is all." prices, but the last two weeks have developed so many Populists, fools and silver cranks, that we have concluded not to put in any other line of goods or increase our business in any way until after McKinley's election. The writer now expects to be in New-York in September, and will try and make it convenient to call upon you there. With best wishes, yours truly.

LARGE & AMSDEN COMPANY.

W. R. AMSDEN, General Manager and Treasurer. My blood is a little out of order; that is all."

Pure blood is essential to life. The more impure it becomes, the stronger hold disease has on the system. If, instead of containing health giving, life giving properties, the blood is full of disease-breeding impurities, how is the daily waste of the tissues to be replaced? It is perfectly natural that the man will lose vitality and nerve force—that he will lose flesh and vigor. He will be useless to himself and to every

THE ANSWER NOW AND IN 1892.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: The Democrats in 1802 promised the workingmen that if they would place them in control of the Government they would increase their wages. Supose these gentiemen had been asked how they proposed to increase wages, and they had answered ability of the employers to pay any wages at all, how would that have sounded? Yet had they answered truthfully this would have been their only answer. All can see this now, or all ought to only answer. All can see this now, or an ought to see it.

But there is another campaign on, and another and even bigger lie must be manufactured. Free silver will do the work now, they say. If they were asked how, and gave an honest answer, they would say. By allowing those who have silver buillion to coin it free and thus debase the currency to such an extent that a day's work will be worth only one-half what it is worth now, and at the same time cut down the value of their savings one-half. Surely the laboring men of this country are not such egregious fools as to trust the Democrats again.
